The Medici Fund was established by Space Renaissance International with the goal to support the renaissance of our civilization in space and, namely, the science and the enabling technology for the civilian space development. This is named after the influential Renaissance Italy family who were renowned for their generosity of funding for the arts and sciences. As a non-profit grant making body (equivalent to the US 501(c)(3) Private Operating Foundation) SRI operates the Medici Fund Program. This will soon become one of the largest not-for-profit grant-based collaborations and equity partnerships for space entrepreneurs, but not only. The Medici Fund will also fund, through the Space Renaissance Academy, one of the top educational scholarship and bursary programs in the civilian space sector, and provide grant-aid and sponsorship opportunities for members to enable them to participate in a range of projects undertaken by partner organizations.

Become a New Medici! Everybody can donate to the SRI Medici Fund, making a one-shot donation or establishing a recurrent monthly payment.
